So is American policing Tuesday's verdict followed a thorough prosecution and underwhelming defense that confirmed the impression of indefensible brutality left by a bystander's video of Floyd's 9\frac{12}{12}-minute asphyxiation under Chauvin's

Editorial: Derek Chauvin's defense is proving there's no defending George Floyd's death That's where he died after nearly 10 excruciating minutes of asphyxiation, where a few forever-changed witnesses saw his killing not on video but in person, and where they became the first of legions of Floyd's Hollywood wouldn’t cast a Filipino American as a leading man. As a teen in the '90s, the Pittsburg native was already in an elite Hollywood circle of child stars, especially after playing the memorable Rufio in the 1991 Steven Spielberg film "Hook." But some may

Review: In "Facing the Mountain," the paradox of Japanese American internment The book’s heroes are American soldiers and civilians, men and women who look in the mirror and see "Americans" looking back at them,” only to go outside and be viewed as foreign enemies. The subject is timely,

Ten Republicans stand tall in defense of American democracy But the one fact the Leader of 20,000 Lies cannot escape is that he is the only president in American history to be impeached twice.

Wild defense firm as Sharks fall 3-2 The Sharks pulled galie Martin Jones for an extra man with more than 90 seconds left, but the Wild defense held on for the win.

Review: In "Boogie," starring East Bay native Taylor Takahashi, an Asian American teen dreams of making the NBA A glowering New York teen whose game better approximates street ball than the team game espoused at his Queens high school, Boogie dreams of landing a scholarship to an elite college program and playing in the
